Question for Holy Week

If you open a prayer book or missalette for Holy Week, you will see readings for each day this coming week and you will also see the entry TRIDUUM or Paschal Triduum, Holy Triduum, or Easter Triduum. What is the significance of any of these terms? See the answer below and pray through the readings for Holy Week that illustrate the TRIDUUM.

Answer for Holy Week

The Word TRIDUUM comes from the Latin words for “three” (tri) “days” (dies). It refers to the period of three days that begins on the evening of Holy Thursday, continues on Good Friday, and onto the Easter Vigil on Holy Saturday. Be sure to check the times below for the services for each of the Triduum services at Holy Family.

Daily Readings for Holy Week

March 29th:
- Isaiah 42:1-7
- Psalm 27:1-3, 13-14
- John 12:1-11

March 30th:
- Isaiah 49:1-6
- Psalm 71:1-6, 15 and 17
- John 13:21-33, 36-38

March 31st:
- Isaiah 50:4-9
- Psalm 69:8-10, 21-22, 31 and 33-34
- Matthew 26:14-25

April 1st (Holy Thursday):
- Isaiah 61:1-3, 6, 8-9
- Psalm 89:21-22, 25 and 27
- Book of Revelation 1:5-8
- Gospel of Luke 4:16-21

Holy Thursday is also known as “Maundy” Thursday, which comes from the Latin word mandatum meaning mandate or commandment. It was on this day in our Christian tradition (at the Last Supper) that Jesus said “I give you a new commandment . . .”

Holy Family Parish will celebrate the commemoration of the Lord’s Last Supper on Holy Thursday evening, with a Mass at 7:00 pm. This begins the Triduum.

During the Gloria in Excelsis Deo, bells may be rung and the organ or piano may be played, but afterwards, bells and organ are silenced until the Gloria of the Easter Vigil. After the homily of the Mass, the ritual of washing of the feet (as Jesus did for his Apostles) sometimes follows. The communion rite is especially April 1st (Holy Thursday):

significant on this day as a remembrance of the institution of the Eucharist by Jesus Himself, surrounded by the Apostles at the Last Supper. Mass concludes with a procession of the Blessed Sacrament to an altar of repose. And the altar is stripped bare without ceremony. No Masses are celebrated from this point until the Mass of Resurrection at the Easter Vigil.

April 2nd (Good Friday):

On Good Friday, Holy Family Parish will celebrate “Stations of the Cross” at 3:00 pm. Those who gather will be led through the stages of Christ’s trial, the carrying of His cross up to Calvary and the various stops along the way, followed by His crucifixion and eventual death.

Then at 7:00 pm, a Communion Service and a Kissing of the Cross will be held. During this service, we recall the passion and crucifixion of Jesus. During the service (technically not a full Mass), a cross - not the one that is above the altar - is unveiled and venerated. There is no consecration, but communion (consecrated and reserved on Holy Thursday) is distributed at the celebration of the Lord’s Passion. The mood of this service is somber, realizing that Jesus has been put into the newly hewn tomb. No Masses are celebrate still until the Mass of Resurrection at the Easter Vigil.

April 3rd (Holy Saturday):

A vigil service will be held after nightfall on Holy Saturday beginning at 7:00 pm here at Holy Family Parish in celebration of the Resurrection of Jesus. A ceremony of darkness and light is held at the start of this Easter Vigil Mass. The paschal candle, whose light symbolizes the Resurrection of Jesus from the dead, is lit from the new Easter fire. A solemn processio to the altar with the candle takes place. After the procession, the Exultet is intoned. This is a traditional chant in Latin, exulting the Resurrection of the Lord. An English version is typically chanted.

Then a number of readings are proclaimed (see * below) that recount the salvation history beginning with the Creation, including the account of Israel’s deliverance at the Red Sea and prophesies of Isaiah and other prophetic readings. The Gospel of Mark then tells the story of Mary Magdalene and the other women going to the tomb and finding it empty.

* Note that there are a total of seven possible Hebrew Scripture readings for the Easter Vigil Mass, each followed by a Responsive Verse. Not all seven are typically proclaimed at a Holy Saturday Mass, but usually three or four are chosen to be read. Then there are the usual readings of an Epistle, Responsorial Psalm, and Gospel.
EASTER SUNDAY MASSES:
9:00 AM and 11:00AM (ENGLISH)
12:30 PM (SPANISH)

Sunday Readings for April 4th - Easter Sunday

Acts of the Apostles 10:34, 37-43 - A sermon by Peter proclaiming the baptism, teachings, death and Resurrection of Jesus. Peter preaches that all who believe in Jesus will receive forgiveness of sins through Him.

Psalm 118:1-2, 16-17, 22-23 - “This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad.”

Colossians 3:1-4 - Paul writes to the Christian community at Colossus that we will all be raised with Christ and that we will all appear with Him in glory.

John 20:1-9 - After Mary Magdalene finds and empty tomb in the morning, she reports to Peter. Peter and another disciple race to the tomb to see for themselves. Also finding it empty, they truly believe that Jesus had indeed been raised from the dead.
